BROOKE IS AUCTIONING OFF HER CALVINS!

Brooke Shields famously said nothing would come between her and her Calvins, but now she's changing her tune. The former model, 59, is set to auction off the pair of blue denims she wore in her iconic 1980 ad when she was only 15 years old. The jeans, which according to Studio Auctions are in "very good condition," are estimated to be worth over $50,000. "I hope that somebody enjoys these just as much as I have and finds them as meaningful as I do," says Brooke. "I can't wait for someone to show these off! Can you imagine my waist was ever that small? It's terrifying!"
